Bus Safety Rules

Safe riding practices should be taught as an ongoing process by both school and driver.

Practices should include but not limited to:

- a) How to properly board and exit a school bus.
- b) Proper seating.
- c) Expected behavior when approaching and crossing a railroad crossing.
- d) Emergency procedures in the event of an accident to include proper procedures in case of driver being unable to give instructions. Example: How to call 911 and report accident.
- e) Proper evacuation techniques for fire, accident or natural disaster.

Bus evacuation procedures should be taught and put in practice at least twice a year - once in the fall and once in the spring.

It is the main responsibility of the driver to teach these procedures under the supervision and direction of the Director of Transportation.

Each driver should follow as a minimum the checklist as shown in "attachment A".

Upon completion of the drill it shall be the school administrator's responsibility to duly note said drill with any comments and forward to the Department of Transportation as required by state standards.

Bus Conduct – (See attachment A)

The Columbia County Board of Education shall require, upon finding that a student has engaged in unruly behavior on a school bus/school bus stop, the parent or guardian of the student, and the appropriate school officials may meet to form a school bus behavior contract for the student. Such contract shall provide for assigned seating on a bus, ongoing parent involvement, and progressive age appropriate discipline for student misconduct on the bus/school bus stop, including possible suspension from riding the bus. These provisions are not to be construed to limit the instances when a school code of conduct or local board of education may require use of a student bus behavior contract.

The Columbia County Board of Education requires schools to provide comprehensive and specific provisions prescribing and governing student conduct and safety rules on public school buses. Schools should have on file signed statements from parents and students.
