

SUPERVISION OF STUDENTS

Date: August 10, 1999

---

It is the responsibility of the principal to see that every student is under supervision at all times. This includes when the child first boards a school bus in the morning and gets off the bus in the afternoon. Children must not leave the bus except at school or home without prior approval of principal.

Activity Trips

Any time students are traveling on curricular or extracurricular trips, it shall be the responsibility of the principal to establish supervisory procedures which provide oversight of student conduct at all times.

Procedures should consider as a minimum the following:

1. Number of students participating
2. Length of trip
3. Overnight accommodations
